Catherine,

Hope all is going well with you. I'm forwarding the below message to you as one homeowner in the Los Feliz Towers did write to us and many have complained. Please pass this on to David Ryu. It really was a traffic nightmare not just with the amount of cars but the honking of the horns before and after the concert. Maybe the city can post signs similar to the ones around the Hollywood Bowl that ask concert goers to keep noise down as they are in a residential area. Many thanks,

Rafik

Alex,

I am forwarding to you the message I sent to the LFIA as well as the Los Angeles City Parks & Recreation. Tonight was a nightmare regarding the honking horns on Los Feliz. Please pass this along to the board.

Thanks so much.

Angie

Message Body:

Well, if tonight is any indication of how the city is going to manage the Greek, they should be fired. It is 8:30 and I am listening to constant horns honk. I live in the Los Feliz Towers and traffic has been a nightmare

for hours but seems to still be at a standstill in the right-hand turn lane going west on Los Feliz. The concert I am sure started some time ago.
If the city can't manage to get the cars into the parking areas in a timely manner, they at least need to be down here stopping the constant horn honking. This is the worst I have heard in many, many years and I have lived here for more than 20. Please exercise your influence to get the city to correct this. We are a residential neighborhood and I don't appreciate having my entire evening of dinner and relaxation bombarded this way.

Thank you for all your great representation.

Angie Savage
